Furthermore, he or she must ensure at regular intervals - including through on-site visits - in particular that the obligations under money laundering law are being complied with and that the necessary measures are being taken and effectively implemented. If necessary, he or she must also take cross-company measures.

The parent company must ensure that the Group Money Laundering Officer or the employees appointed by him or her are authorized to obtain audit reports, if available, for all branches, subsidiaries and group companies in Germany and abroad.

This authorization also includes the unrestricted performance of spot checks as part of the aforementioned tasks. The parent company must also ensure that the Group Money Laundering Officer, the employees appointed by him/her and the Group Internal Audit department have group-wide access to all information, documents and files relevant to the fulfillment of money laundering obligations, in particular regarding all customers, beneficial owners and all business relationships and transactions within or outside such business relationships.

The Group Money Laundering Officer must take precautions to protect personal data.
