	4. For class D1, D1E, D and DE in addition to 1st and 3rd: Expert opinion on special requirements. In many cases, a medical-psychological report from an officially recognised assessment body for fitness to drive is also required to assess whether the fitness to drive is reflected. In this regard, contact the competent driving licence authority.
Voraussetzungen	A driving licence can only be reissued upon application after it has been withdrawn and after the expiry of any blocking period that may have been set. Since the relevant investigations take a certain amount of time, the application for a new driving licence should be submitted three months before the expiry of the blocking period.
Kosten	Different, depending on the investigative effort to determine the fitness to drive. Additional costs are incurred for register information and any necessary assessments.
Verfahrensablauf	The application must be submitted in person to the competent driving licence authority. Depending on the circumstances of the individual case, there are further procedural steps.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The reissue of the driver's license depends on the individual case. A surrender can only take place after a positive expert opinion has been obtained.
Frist	The application for re-issuance should be submitted to the driving licence authority three months before the expiry of the blocking period (but not earlier).
