Voraussetzungen	Before a residence permit is issued, you must enter the country with the required visa. Within the framework of the Western Balkans regulation, the visa must be applied for and issued by the competent German diplomatic mission in the above-mentioned countries. Only then can the Federal Employment Agency give its legally required approval. The number of first-time approvals by the Federal Employment Agency is limited to 50,000 per calendar year. The Federal Employment Agency carries out a so-called priority check. This checks whether the specific position can be filled by a person who is already registered as a jobseeker in Germany. Approval may not be granted if the applicant has received benefits under the Asylum Seekers Benefits Act in the 24 months prior to submitting the application. In the case of applicants who take up employment after reaching the age of 45, approval may only be granted if the applicant's salary is at least 55% of the annual contribution assessment ceiling for the general pension insurance scheme, unless the applicant can provide proof of an adequate pension.
