Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Application for admission as a European lawyer in German
- Curriculum vitae with photograph in German
- Certificate of membership of the legal profession issued by the competent authority in the home Member State
- if applicable, proof of previous admission to the German bar, as a legal counsel or as another member of a German bar association
- certified translation of all foreign language documents into the German language
- Proof of the conclusion of a professional liability insurance policy covering damages arising from the provision of advice under German law in Germany. As a rule, only the standardised confirmations of the German insurers are recognised.

Voraussetzungen

The prerequisite for admission to a German bar association is the submission of a certificate of membership of the legal profession from the competent authority in the home country.

Established European lawyers must comply with the German professional obligations and use the professional title that they are entitled to use in their home country under local law. Anyone who is entitled to use the professional title "Rechtsanwalt" (e.g. in
