European lawyers providing services are generally authorized to provide advice in the field of German law. However, the restriction applies that they may only act as a representative or defender of a client in court proceedings and in official proceedings for criminal offenses, administrative offenses, official misconduct or breaches of professional duty in which clients may not conduct the legal dispute themselves or defend themselves in consultation with a lawyer admitted in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Lawyers' Act (Einvernehmensanwalt).

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Certificate of membership of the legal profession issued by the competent authority in the home Member State

Voraussetzungen

A prerequisite for the temporary exercise of the profession in Germany is that the professional title that may be used under the law of the country of origin is used. Anyone who is entitled to use the professional title "Rechtsanwalt" (e.g. in Austria) must also state the professional organization to which they belong in their home country (e.g. Vienna Bar Association).

The authorization to practice the profession of a lawyer in the country of origin must be proven upon request by the competent bar association, the court or the authority before which the European lawyer providing services appears.
