Teaser	The fishing levy is used exclusively to promote fishing.
Volltext	Anyone wishing to fish in Bavaria and requiring a Bavarian fishing license must pay the fishing tax; it can be paid either for a period of five years or once for the entire period of validity. The fishing tax is used exclusively to promote fishing. The funds are mainly allocated by the Landesfischereiverband Bayern e.V. within the framework of statutory regulations.

Voraussetzungen
Kosten	If you pay for five years, the fishing levy is EUR 40.00. If you pay once, you will have to pay a maximum of € 300.00 (if you apply at the age of 14). The older you are when you submit your application, the greater the reduction in the fee for one-off payments. For example, if you are 45 years old when you submit your application, the fishing tax for a lifetime fishing license with a one-off payment is still €160.00. For the annual fishing license for tourists, the fishing tax is € 15.00. Under certain conditions, which you can find out from the municipality, the fishing tax is reduced to 50% of the regular amount.
