Teaser	In order to carry out the further training regulated in the AVPfleWoqG (facility management, nursing service management, practical guidance and geriatric psychiatric nursing and care), further training institutions require state recognition.
Volltext	Further training institutions must apply for state recognition from the Association of Nurses in Bavaria (VdPB). Subsequent significant changes to the relevant recognition requirements must be reported immediately. Otherwise, recognition may be withdrawn. The state-recognized continuing education institutions are obliged to report to the competent authority on request on the facts relevant to the decision, to submit the necessary evidence and to cooperate in inspections. If the VdPB has not decided on an application for state recognition within a period of four months after receipt of the application including the complete documentation, recognition is deemed to have been granted. The competent authority for further training under the AVPfleWoqG is the VdPB (recognition is independent of location).
