Teaser	A birth abroad can be subsequently certified in the German register of births.
Volltext	A birth abroad can be subsequently certified upon application to the relevant registry office if the person born abroad has German citizenship at the time of the application. The parents of the child, the child itself, its spouse, partner or children are entitled to apply. The registry office in whose jurisdiction the person born abroad has or last had their place of residence or habitual abode is responsible for notarization. If this does not give rise to jurisdiction, the registry office in whose jurisdiction the applicant has or last had their domicile or habitual residence shall certify the birth. If this does not result in jurisdiction either, the registry office I in Berlin will notarize the birth.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• The responsible registry office will be happy to advise you.
Voraussetzungen	Subsequent certification of the birth is possible for • German nationals • Stateless persons, homeless foreigners and foreign refugees with habitual residence in Germany Eligible applicants are • the person born abroad themselves • their parents • their children • the spouse or life partner
