at least one other person to provide sexual services outside of the operator's prostitution establishments; this also applies if it is only apparent from the circumstances that the brokered services also include sexual acts; e.g. operation of an escort service.

Prostitution vehicles and prostitution events may also be subject to notification requirements.

Anyone wishing to operate a prostitution business through a person employed as a proxy also requires a proxy permit.

The authorities have rights of information and inspection vis-à-vis permit holders in accordance with Sections 29 - 31 of the Prostitution Protection Act (ProstSchG). For the purpose of monitoring, the representatives of the authorities are authorized to enter properties and business premises of the persons concerned, to carry out inspections and visits, to inspect business documents and records and to carry out identity checks. At the request of the authorities, the parties concerned must provide the information required for the monitoring of business operations.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Operating concept (for the contents cf. § 16 paras. 2 and 3 ProstSchG)
