Teaser	bavarikon is the portal for art, culture and regional studies of the Free State of Bavaria. As part of the state budget, funding is available for the digitization of objects from cultural institutions in Bavaria and for their online presentation in the portal.
Volltext	bavarikon is the portal for art, culture and regional studies of the Free State of Bavaria. It digitally presents art, culture and knowledge treasures from various institutions in Bavaria. The Bavarian State Library is responsible for operating the portal and managing the funds earmarked for bavarikon. The data is hosted by the Leibniz Supercomputing Center of the Bavarian Academy of Sciences and Humanities. bavarikon is not a closed service, but is constantly gaining new cultural objects as content and cultural institutions as partners. A council, which meets every six months and in which various Bavarian cultural institutions are represented, decides on the inclusion of new content in the portal. #### Purpose The Free State of Bavaria is pursuing several goals with bavarikon. On the one hand, the portal serves as a showcase for Bavarian culture. On the other hand, as a central platform, bavarikon is a decisive infrastructure measure for the digitization of cultural assets. bavarikon enables Bavarian cultural institutions to participate in innovations (e.g. 3D digitization). #### Object The digitization of objects that are of outstanding importance for Bavaria's cultural identity can be funded. bavarikon pursues a basic concept based on the following three pillars. Digitized are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • high-quality top-quality items that are to be

Verfahrensablauf

The application procedure comprises two stages:

Pre-application:

- The focus of the pre-application is on the description of the content of the project as a basis for the bavarikon Council's decision.
- The preliminary application, which is available on the Internet and from the bavarikon office at the Bavarian State Library (see "Forms"), is reviewed by the Bavarian State Library.
- The final pre-application is submitted to the State Ministry of Science and the Arts via the bavarikon office.
- The bavarikon Council decides whether the project is suitable for bavarikon.
- The Chairman of the bavarikon Council informs the applicant of the decision and, in the event of a positive vote, invites the applicant to submit a main application.

Modul	Sachverhalt
	Main application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The focus of the main application is on the logistical, financial and time planning as a working basis for the implementation of the project. • The applicant will receive a main application from the bavarikon office after consultation. This is to be sent to the chairman of the bavarikon council after review by the Bavarian State Library. • Once the main application has been reviewed, it will be approved by the Bavarian State Library.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time depends on the meetings of the bavarikon Council and the complexity of the project.
Frist	The bavarikon Council, which decides on the preliminary applications, meets twice a year. Applications to be dealt with at the bavarikon Council meeting can be submitted at any time. Proposals are prepared in close coordination with the bavarikon office.
