Teaser	Anyone wishing to work as a pharmaceutical consultant who is not a pharmacist, pharmacy assistant or pharmaceutical consultant, for example, must have their examination or training recognized by the competent authority.
Volltext	Pharmaceutical companies may only appoint persons who have the expertise specified in Section 75 para. 2 of the German Medicinal Products Act (AMG) to visit healthcare professionals on a full-time basis in order to provide them with specialist information on medicinal products within the meaning of Section 2 para. 1 or para. 2 no. 1 AMG (pharmaceutical consultants). The expertise is possessed by 1. Pharmacists or persons with a certificate of having passed an examination after completing a university degree in pharmacy, chemistry, biology, human or veterinary medicine, 2. Pharmacy assistants and persons who have completed training as technical assistants in pharmacy, chemistry, biology, human or veterinary medicine, 3. pharmaceutical sales representatives. The competent authority may recognize as sufficient an examination or completed training that is at least equivalent to the training of the persons named in Section 75 (2) AMG.

	the form of a translation. Translations are accepted if they have been prepared by an interpreter or translator appointed or sworn in Germany, the other contracting countries of the EEA or Switzerland. Translations made outside Germany, the EEA or Switzerland will generally not be accepted. Exception: Translations already prepared in a third country must be submitted to an interpreter or translator appointed or sworn in Germany for verification of accuracy and then submitted here.
Voraussetzungen	The prerequisite is the equivalence of the completed training.
Kosten	The fee depends on the administrative costs and is usually EUR 150. It is to be borne by the applicant.
Verfahrensablauf	The informal application with the required documents must be sent to the responsible government.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time depends on the completeness and scope of the documents submitted. It can therefore vary individually.
Frist	Recognition can only be granted after all the necessary documents have been submitted and any unanswered questions have been clarified and the equivalence has been technically assessed. The AMG does not set any deadlines.
