Modul
Sachverhalt

- A risk assessment has been carried out in accordance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act. In particular, the hazards and stresses resulting from the extension of the daily working hours have been taken into account:
  - Hazards from heavy physical labor, hazardous substances, noise, radiation, etc.,
  - Hazards due to particularly stressful activities, e.g. with high mental stress or particular accident risks,
  - stress caused by the length of working hours, shift work, rest breaks, daily and weekly rest periods and, where applicable, work on Sundays and public holidays.
- Statements from the occupational safety specialist and the company doctor in charge, which address the specific operational situation of the application, were submitted by the applicant. The applicant has implemented the resulting findings, which require additional protective measures for employees.

Kosten

Cost range: EUR 50 to 10,000
 The costs depend on the duration of the permit and the number of people affected.

Verfahrensablauf

- The company can submit an application in writing or online.
- In addition to the required documents, the following information is required:
  - Applicant (here: company),
  - Number of employees concerned,
  - place of employment, responsible person(s) in the company or on the construction site,
  - period or duration of the extension of working hours,
  - specific details of the planned working hours and break times
- Information on occupational health care
- If the requirements for approval are met, the applicant will receive a notice of approval.
- If the requirements for approval are not met, the applicant will be given the opportunity to withdraw the application. If the application is not withdrawn, the applicant will receive a rejection notice. The costs for the rejection notice are calculated on the basis of the list of costs.
