Teaser	The Free State of Bavaria promotes the creation of permanent jobs subject to social insurance contributions for people with severe disabilities or equivalent status as well as the cooperation and joint employment of people with and without disabilities.
Volltext	Inclusive companies offer severely disabled people and people with equivalent status whose participation in other employment on the general labor market encounters particular difficulties due to the nature and severity of their disability or other circumstances, diverse and adequate employment opportunities. The aim is to create permanent jobs subject to social insurance contributions for people with severe disabilities or equivalent status as well as the cooperation and joint employment of people with and without disabilities. In Bavaria, inclusive companies are predominantly small or medium-sized companies from various sectors of the economy. Inclusion companies differ from workshops for people with disabilities in that training and employment contracts are concluded with the persons concerned, with all the resulting rights and obligations under labor law, collective bargaining law and social law, and thus an employment relationship exists on the general labor market. The Inclusion Office at the Bavarian Centre for Family and Social Affairs (ZBFS) can support the establishment, expansion, modernization and
