You also have the option of having the **instruction conducted by a registered physician** (no fee exemption). If you would like to take advantage of this offer, please make an appointment with the respective physician's office (see forms and downloads).

The Infection Protection Act (IfSG) does not prescribe a specific form of instruction.

After the instruction, it must be stated in writing that no facts are known that would justify a ban on activity.

If there are indications that there are obstacles to working in the food sector, the certificate may only be issued if a medical certificate proves that the obstacle in question no longer exists.
