| Hinweise                     | Persons who are not yet 15 years old may fish with a hand rod without a fishing license, provided they are supervised by an adult with a valid fishing license. If the fishing license is issued to a minor, the fishing license must be renewed after the minor turns 18. Fishing licenses for people without residence in Germany (tourists) and professional fishermen are issued by the Authority for the Environment, Climate, Energy and Agriculture (BUKEA). (see Forms, Services &amp; Links) Fishing licenses from other German federal states, for which an exam is required, are recognized in Hamburg. Information about waters approved for fishing is provided by the Hamburg Fishing Association (see Forms, Services &amp; Links).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
