the past. The information also serves as proof of your personal reliability, for example if you want to operate a business that requires a permit (e.g. restaurant, broker) or a business that requires monitoring (e.g. trade in used vehicles, travel agency). Application: The application must be submitted in person or in writing (exception) with an officially or publicly certified signature. It is not possible for the applicant to be represented by an authorized representative (e.g. lawyer, spouse). A direct application to the central trade register is also not possible. The applicant has to prove his identity and, if he is acting as the legal representative of a legal person, his power of representation with an extract from the commercial register. Natural person: Trade office of residence Legal person: Trade office of the company headquarters The information is generally sent to the applicant. Sending to an authorized person is not possible. Direct submission to an authority can be requested for certain purposes. For this purpose, the address of the authority must be given when submitting the application.
