Hinweise	A travel business card is generally applied for at the main residence and is then valid nationwide in accordance with the trade regulations. As the holder of a travel business card, you are obliged to carry it with you while you are doing your business. The travel trade card must have already been issued when the relevant activity is started. If public roads, paths and places are to be used in the exercise of the travel trade, a special use permit is required (see under links in the authority finder special uses, permit). This must be applied for at the Center for Economy, Building and Environment of the responsible district office. Anyone who operates a travel business has to keep a sales tax booklet (see links in the authorities finder sales tax booklet).
