| Teaser                        | The city of Hamburg supports active young people and their organizations in many ways.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Volltext                      | You can receive funding for example for organizing seminars and events, group work, leisure and recreational activities, and international youth exchanges. Grants are also available for the purchase of materials, equipment, and instruments, as well as for public relations measures. If you, as a young person, are actively involved as a youth group leader, you will receive various discounts with the Youth Leader Card (Juleica). You can find more information under the "Links" section. |
