Sachverhalt

register (formerly birth book) at the registry office in Germany. You are not obliged to have the birth registered retrospectively. Birth certificates from abroad are often recognized in Germany as long as their authenticity is beyond question. However, the subsequent entry in the birth register can be an advantage because the local registry office can then issue you with a German birth certificate. This means that you no longer have to have the foreign certificate translated and certified for future purposes.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Application form for registration of a foreign birth in the birth register foreign birth certificate with translation; if necessary, legalization or apostille valid identity card, passport or travel document Marriage and birth certificates of the parents of the person to whom the entry refers if applicable, naturalization certificate or certificate of citizenship if necessary, further documents with proof of authenticity and, if necessary, translation, depending on the individual case Submit all documents in original.

Voraussetzungen

You have German citizenship, are stateless or a recognized refugee whose habitual residence is in Germany. You are applying for certification oneself, Her child, a parent or Your spouse or partner.

Kosten

Certification in the birth register: from 104.00 EUR Birth certificate / certified printout from the birth register: 18.00 EUR (if ordered at the same time, each additional copy costs 8.00 EUR) Additional services, such as issuing an apostille or translations, may incur additional costs and fees.

Verfahrensablauf

You apply for the birth certificate to be registered at the registry office that is responsible for your German place of residence or the German place of residence of the person entitled to make the application. If neither a current nor a former German place of residence can be determined, you can apply for the certificate to be registered at your responsible German diplomatic mission abroad or at the Berlin I registry office. Collect the necessary documents and send them to the responsible registry office. The registrar checks whether certification by a German registry office is possible. If the requirements are met, the registry
