Modul	Sachverhalt
Voraussetzungen	• You have violated one or more traffic regulations and have therefore committed an administrative offence.
Kosten
Verfahrensablauf	• A traffic violation is determined by the police or another responsible authority. • For minor violations (up to 55 euros), a fine will be imposed. This is issued by means of a warning that is sent to you or handed over to you on site. The warning contains a request to pay the fine within a certain period of time. • If you pay the fine within the set deadline, the case will usually be closed. • If you do not pay the fine on time, a fine notice will be issued. • In the case of serious violations or violations for which no warning fine is provided (from 60 euros), a fine procedure will be initiated. • A penalty notice will be issued and sent to you. This will contain the details of the violation and the amount of the penalty. • The fine notice will set a deadline by which you must pay the fine. • If you pay the fine, the case will be closed. • If you file an appeal, the case may continue to be heard in court.

Hinweise	The traffic fine office cannot be reached in person. You can express your opinion via an online hearing or in writing by email, fax or post. Payment information can be found on the fine notices. There is also a Girocode (QR code) there (except on EU information letters). All payment data can be accessed via this. The Hamburg fine office will only accept driving licenses if the driving ban was also imposed by a Hamburg authority. You can then hand in the driving license by post or by putting it in the mailbox at your house, stating the file number. The driving ban begins when it is received by the fine office. The driving licenses will be sent back to you by post in good time before the deadline expires. You can also get further information on the homepage of the Fines Office.

Rechtsbehelf

Kurztext

- A traffic fine is a monetary penalty for violating traffic rules.
- Violations can include speeding, parking illegally or running a red light.
- The responsible authority determines the violation and the fine office sends a written notice with the amount of the fine.
- A warning fine is a smaller fine for minor violations.
- Fines are imposed for more serious violations and are usually higher than a warning fine.
- Paying the fine within the deadline often closes the case; failure to pay may result in a fine.
- The rules for warnings and fines are laid down in the catalogue of offenses, which applies throughout Germany.
