Volltext	The professional tasks of consulting engineers are Consulting, in particular in development, planning, support, control and testing as well as expert work and participation in research and development tasks in the fields of engineering. This also includes representing the client in tasks related to preparation, management, execution, monitoring and accounting, whereby the activity can extend to all or some of these tasks. Consulting engineers must have acquired at least three years of professional experience after completing their engineering degree and carry out their work independently and on their own responsibility.
