Volltext	If your driver's license has expired, you must apply for a new one. Old paper and permanent card driver's licenses must be gradually exchanged for the EU card driver's license by 2033. Your driving license will remain valid with the exchange; you will simply receive a new driver's license document. Your driver's license classes will generally remain the same. Exceptions apply to classes 2 and 3, which will change if you are over 50 years old. Further information can be found under "Please note."
