authorise the driving of motor vehicles for a maximum of six months after entering Germany. (List country)

Volltext

The Federal Republic of Germany has agreements with some states on the recognition of driving licenses, which simplify the conversion into a German driving license. Appendix 11 of the Driving License Ordinance (FeV) contains a list of countries whose driving licenses entitle you to drive a motor vehicle for a maximum of six months after entering Germany. If you want to continue to drive motor vehicles in Germany afterwards, you must have your driver's license converted into a German one. As a citizen of a listed state, however, you often do not have to take a new exam, just submit an application. Corresponding links can be found under "Forms, Services and Links".
 Danger Provisional driving licenses or learner's driving licenses do not entitle you to drive a vehicle in Germany and therefore cannot be converted into a German driving license. You need a full driver's license from the list state to rewrite. Attention: This service is only available in the Hamburg-Mitte and Hamburg-Nord locations!

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Please bring the following documents with you to the appointment: a valid identity card or an electronic residence permit (eAT) or passport with current confirmation of registration the valid foreign driving license in the original (if necessary with official translation) a biometric passport photo 35 x 45 millimeters if necessary, a translation and/or classification of the driving license by an officially sworn interpreter (the necessity can only be decided after consultation) the appointment confirmation
 Depending on the issuing country, additional documents may be required For class C and D driving licenses you also need: an ophthalmological report is not older than two years a medical report is not older than one year a medical report is not older than one year (class D only) a certificate of good conduct (class D only), which must be applied for at the responsible residents' registration office and is not older than three months If applicable, proof of professional driver qualification for commercial goods and/or passenger transport Please note: You only need the medical reports if you want to extend your driving license at the same time as re-registering it.

Voraussetzungen	In order to have the driver's license rewritten by the Landesbetrieb Verkehr (LBV), the applicant's main place of residence must be in Hamburg. In addition, the foreign driving license must be valid at the time the application is submitted. The transfer is also only possible if the foreign driver's license was obtained at a time when the applicant had had a normal residence for at least 185 days (six months) in the issuing country. This means that you must have lived abroad for at least six months in order to be able to have the driving license you acquired there converted into a German one. For example, if the driver's license was obtained during a four-week vacation, it cannot be converted into a German driver's license. Information is also available in other languages on the BMDV website (see link below).
Kosten	The conversion of a foreign driving license costs between EUR 37.50 and EUR 74.40. This is based on the fee schedule for measures in road traffic (GebOSt). The exact costs depend on the driving license class and can only be determined on site based on the complete documents.
Verfahrensablauf	You complete the preparation at a driving school and, if necessary, take the theoretical and practical driving test. You book an appointment online. On our website for booking appointments, select the category "Driver's License" Book the appointment "Conversion of foreign driving licence or service driving licence into temporary EU card driving licence" You will receive an email. Confirm your reservation using the link in the email. Bring all necessary documents and the appointment confirmation with you to your appointment at the LBV. Scan the QR code on your appointment confirmation using the scanner on site. Take a seat in the waiting area. You will be called by your call number. Your request is being processed.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The transfer takes about four to six weeks from the application.
