| Hinweise          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• During use, other persons must not be endangered or hindered.</li> <li>• The German Road Traffic Regulations (StVO) stipulate that residents of residential parking areas are entitled to a parking permit only. All other interest groups—including companies, institutions, organizations, clubs, and social institutions—can only be exempted from the StVO regulations in exceptional cases. Since there is generally no legal entitlement, special parking permits for this group must always be examined on a case-by-case basis.</li> </ul> |
