Teaser	Do you want to engage in prostitution in Germany? Here you can find out how and where to register.
Volltext	If you engage in prostitution in Germany, you are required to register with the authorities and obtain prior health advice. This registration and consultation requirement applies without exception to all persons who provide sexual services for payment. The health consultation and registration must be conducted in person. You will be issued a certificate confirming your registration. This certificate is valid nationwide and can also be issued in all federal states or municipalities. If you are between 18 and 21 years old, you must renew your registration certificate after one year. If you are older than 21, you must renew your registration after two years.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Identity card, passport, passport substitute or ID card substitute

Modul	Sachverhalt
