Kosten

Verfahrensablauf

- The IHK compares your foreign training qualification with the German training qualification.
- If your qualification is equivalent, it will be recognised. You will receive the notice of equivalence (recognition notice).
- If there are significant differences to the German training qualification, the proven professional experience or other relevant evidence (e.g. further training) will also be checked. In many cases full equivalence can be established.
- If full equivalence cannot be determined, the training qualification will not be recognised. You will receive notification of the differences to the German training qualification. With this decision, you can gain further qualifications and later submit a new application for a determination of equivalence.
