Handlungsgrundlage	§ 8 Vocational Training Act (BBiG) § 7 a Vocational Training Act (BBiG) § 21 paragraph 3 Vocational Training Act (BBiG)
Teaser	The extension of the training period can be applied for in the case of problems in the training, failed exams or part-time training.
Volltext	There are several possible justifications for extending your training period: Extension in exceptional cases If you were ill for a long time, there were significant deficiencies in your training, or maternity leave/parental leave fell during the training period. Part-time training Even with part-time vocational training, you have the option of extending the regular training period. This part-time agreement is stipulated in the vocational training contract at the start of the training. You can also agree part-time for a limited period of training. For this please note: The reduction in your daily or weekly training time may not be more than 50 percent of the full-time training. The duration of your training period will be extended accordingly, but no more than 1.5 times your regular training period. Please note that due to the extension of the training period in part-time training, it may happen that the end of the new contractual training period does not coincide with the central examination dates. In this case, you can apply for an extension of the training period until the next possible examination.
