Handlungsgrundlage	Section 55 paragraph 1 number 4 of the Civil Status Act (PStG) https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/pstg/__55.html § 62 Civil Status Act (PStG) https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/pstg/__62.html
Teaser	You don't have your birth certificate and you need it for a marriage or another official act? Then you can request a printout from the birth register.
Volltext	You can request a certified copy of the birth register. The printout contains all the information recorded about your birth – for example, your name, date of birth, time of birth and information about your parents. Later changes, such as adoption, recognition of paternity or a name change, are also noted. You can also request a multilingual printout of the civil status register if you need the printout for international purposes, for example. The printout comes from the electronic register. It is legally valid, just like a birth certificate. You can use it with authorities, for example. Since November 1, 2022, the exact time of birth (hour and minute) will also be included in every new birth certificate. If you only want to know the time of birth, the responsible authority can provide this information upon request without having to issue a certificate.

Erforderliche Unterlagen	You will need your identity card or passport (copy if ordering in writing). If you are requesting or collecting the printout from the birth register as a representative, you will need a written authorization from the authorized person and their identification document. If you are not the person to whom the term refers, nor their spouse, civil partner, ancestor or descendant, you will need to provide evidence of your legitimate or legal interest.
Voraussetzungen	You are at least 16 years old. The personal data in the civil status registers are subject to data protection. You can therefore only receive certified register printouts as Persons to whom the entry refers and their spouses, Life partner (within the meaning of the Life Partnership Act), Ancestors and descendants (such as parents and grandparents as well as children and grandchildren), Siblings. Other persons, including close relatives such as aunts and uncles, will only receive the printout if they can credibly demonstrate a legal interest (examples: letter from the probate court, court judgment or enforceable title).
Kosten	Certified printout from the birth register (first copy): 18.00 Euro if additional copies are requested at the same time: 8.00 Euro each Issue for statutory pension insurance: free of charge
Verfahrensablauf	Apply for a birth certificate at the relevant authority. You can apply for the multilingual birth certificate online. Use the online service "Certificate Request". You will be guided through the application process. You can apply for the multilingual birth certificate in writing by mail, fax or email. You send an informal letter to the responsible authority requesting that they issue you a multilingual birth certificate. Your letter should contain the following information: Name first Name Date and place of birth Surname, first name of parents if known: registry office and registration
