child employment Included in this application are:
Declaration of consent (written consent of the legal guardians) medical certificate (not older than 3 months) School certificate You must attach a certificate from the school stating that there is no risk of poorer academic performance. Statement from the Youth Welfare Office (optional)

Voraussetzungen

The child in question is at least 3 years old. To employ children aged 3 to 14 years and young people aged 15 to 17 years who are required to attend school, you need a permit. The child's activity refers to creative participation, for example as an actor, musician, supporting character, extra, singer or model. The children help to organize events. You can obtain an exemption from the employment ban: At theatre performances for children over 6 years, up to 4 hours daily between 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. For musical performances and other events, advertising events, radio and television recordings, and film and photo recordings: For children aged 3 to 6, up to 2 hours daily between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. For children aged 6 to 9 years, up to 3 hours daily between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. You must allow the child at least 14 hours of free time between two activities. Attendance at school before the end of this period is not affected by this restriction. You are responsible for ensuring that all necessary precautions and measures are taken before employment begins to protect the child from dangers to life and health and to avoid adverse physical, mental and emotional development. In doing so, you should take into account all relevant circumstances related to the child's employment. You ensure the care and supervision of the child. This includes the careful selection, appointment, instruction and monitoring of the supervisors, even if you have delegated supervision to third parties. No permission will be granted for children to participate in cabarets, dance halls and similar establishments, as well as in amusement parks, fairs, carnivals and similar events, shows or performances.
