Teaser	If you want to plan or demonstrate a performance with pyrotechnic articles such as fireworks in film, musical and television venues as well as in theaters and at concerts, you must apply for a permit.
Volltext	You need a permit for testing and demonstration in the presence of visitors and participants if you • plan a stage performance with pyrotechnic effects or fire-hazardous activities. • use or demonstrate explosive substances or fire-hazardous activities in film and television production facilities.

Modul	Sachverhalt
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• If applicable: certificate of competence • Where applicable: permission
Voraussetzungen	• You are of legal age. • For effects of category T1: no further requirements. • For effects of category T2: You have a permit or are in possession of a certificate of competence
Kosten	The costs vary depending on the amount of work involved: • 53.00 EUR per half hour of activity (including travel time, office working time, on-site acceptance) • Travel allowance: 8.10 EUR
Verfahrensablauf	If you want to apply for the permit online: • You access the online service. • You can continue without registering again; you can also register using the Business service account. Your company data can then be automatically transferred from the service account to the online application after your initial registration. • You fill out all mandatory and optional fields and upload any necessary documents. • The remaining procedural steps correspond to the written procedure. If you want to apply for approval in writing: • You submit your application to the responsible authority. • The responsible authority will formally examine your application and, if necessary, request any missing documents from you. • The responsible authority will check whether your application is eligible for approval (approval of pyrotechnicians, effect devices, distances, etc.). • If the application and the submitted documents fail the review, the responsible body will speak to the pyrotechnician and the applicant about any necessary changes. • If the test is passed, the responsible body will arrange an appointment to test the pyrotechnic effects and/or fire-hazardous actions in the presence of the pyrotechnician.
