Verfahrensablauf	You can apply for integration assistance from the institution responsible for you. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You should contact the integration assistance provider responsible for you. • You will be advised there or you can submit an informal application straight away. • The competent authority may ask you to fill out a form and submit additional documents. • The authority carries out a participation procedure, an overall plan procedure or both procedures in order to determine your individual need for integration assistance services and possible other participation services. You can request that someone you trust be involved in the overall plan process. • When all the documents are available, the competent authority will check whether and which benefits you will receive based on your information and the assessment of your needs. This also includes checking whether and to what extent your income and assets are taken into account. • After your application has been reviewed, you will receive a notification.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time for your application depends on various factors. Please contact your responsible integration assistance provider, who can give you more detailed information about the duration of the process. However, the authority to which you have submitted your application must determine within 2 weeks of receipt of the application whether it is responsible for your application. If the authority is not responsible, it will forward your application to the responsible body immediately. You will be informed of the forwarding. If the authority does not forward your application, it must determine and provide your need for support as quickly as possible. If an expert opinion is necessary to determine your needs, the authority must decide within 2 weeks of receiving the expert opinion. If the authority does not need to obtain an expert opinion, it will decide within 3 weeks of receiving your application.
