Volltext	If you are looking for information about cooperatives registered in the cooperative register in Hamburg, you can view the cooperative register kept by the registry court of the local court. The cooperative register is a so-called public register and provides information about the facts and legal relationships of the legal entities registered here. The entry on the register sheet contains information about the name, Object, Board of Directors including its representation regulations, any power of attorney as well as the obligation to make additional contributions and changes to the statutes of the respective cooperatives. In addition, the documents submitted by the cooperatives to the cooperative register, such as the statute (articles of association) or minutes of general meetings, can be inspected.
