Teaser	You can obtain a residence permit in cases of exceptional hardship.
Volltext	You have a residence permit and your residence permit cannot be extended according to the general regulations. A residence permit according to other regulations is also not an option. In this case, this residence permit can be extended for reasons of international law, humanitarian or political reasons if, due to special circumstances in the individual case, leaving the federal territory of Germany would be exceptionally hard for you. You must submit an application to the responsible authority for this.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation of the currently valid residence permit • current biometric photo • Proof of identity (e.g. passport, ID card, birth certificate, marriage certificate) • Employment contract or binding job offer • for regulated professions, additionally: your professional authorisation (for example, licence to practice a profession or professional practice permit) • Proof of your existing health insurance • rental contract
