Teaser	Are you a full-time carer for a foster child who requires special education? Then you will receive professional support and advice from the foster care service.
Volltext	Children, adolescents and young adults in full-time remedial care have special needs due to their impaired physical and/or mental development. These needs require close and intensive consultation with those involved in the care relationship. Continuous and close support to build a stable relationship of trust is of great importance for the protection of foster children, the stability of a care relationship and the satisfaction of caregivers and foster families. The local youth welfare office or foster care service supports and accompanies foster parents and foster children with a wide range of services.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	No
Voraussetzungen
Kosten	Gebühr: Es fallen keine Kosten an
Verfahrensablauf	Foster parents contact their local youth welfare office or foster child service. There they receive specific advice and support before taking in the child or young person and during the duration of the foster care arrangement. This also applies in cases where neither educational assistance nor integration assistance is provided for the child or young person. It also applies to cases where the foster parent does not require permission for full-time care in accordance with Section 44.
