Verfahrensablauf	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You contact the advice center to describe your concerns and to arrange an initial appointment. This can be done by phone, email or in person. • In the first conversation, you explain your situation and your concerns. This helps the consultants understand your needs and the specific conflicts or challenges. • If necessary, further appointments will be made for detailed consultations. These discussions can take place alone, with your partner or with the whole family. • During the consultation, the consultants analyze the situation together with you, identify problem areas and work out possible solutions. Both the legal and the emotional aspects are considered.
