Teaser	Does your child have a mental disability or is at risk of one? Does this limit their participation in society? Then integration assistance can help.
Volltext	Some children and young people are unable to participate in public life on an equal footing due to their disability. Integration assistance supports children and young people with disabilities so that they can lead a self-determined life. This integration assistance is aimed at children and young people with a mental disability or the threat of a mental disability. Integration assistance is divided into 4 groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Services for medical rehabilitation</li> <li>• Services for participation in working life</li> <li>• Services for participation in education and</li> <li>• Services for social participation</li> </ul> Integration assistance can take the form of <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• in outpatient form, outside of inpatient facilities, for example school support</li> <li>• in day facilities for children or in other day-care</li> </ul> facilities

- in day and night facilities and other forms of accommodation
- Placement in full-time care (for suitable persons; in accordance with Section 35a Para. 2 No. 3 SGB VIII)

A mental disability may be due, for example, to an anxiety disorder, depression, psychosis, autism, ADHD or an eating disorder.

In addition to mental disabilities, there are also physical and mental disabilities. Integration assistance may also be available for these. Other agencies may be responsible for this. Ask your youth welfare office which office is responsible for you.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Identity card
- Proof of custody For example: birth certificate, information from the custody register or decision of the family court on custody.
- Specialist opinion A specialist's opinion on the existence of a mental disability or impending mental disability in your child. This can also be obtained by the Youth Welfare Office with your consent.

Voraussetzungen

- Young people are eligible. They can submit an application from the age of 15.
- Before the age of 15, their legal representatives submit an application on their behalf.
- Your child has a mental disability or is at risk of one. The condition is likely to last longer than 6 months.
- Your child's participation in social life is impaired.

Kosten

The consultation is free of charge.

Verfahrensablauf

- Contact the responsible office.
- You will be shown possible assistance in a personal meeting. This may be additional or combined with educational assistance or assistance from other rehabilitation providers.
- Integration assistance can only be granted if a suitable doctor certifies a mental or impending mental disability.
- All parties involved (you, your child, the employee of the independent organization and the youth welfare office) meet for a help plan discussion. The help plan
