Hinweise	Information for finders Finders are entitled to a finder's reward and the return of the lost property if it is not collected by the owner within 6 months. In the case of return to the finder, an administrative fee is due. Both claims must be made when the lost property is handed in. The legal finder's fee is 5 percent for an estimated value of the item of up to 500 euros, 3 percent for an added value of 500 euros and 3 percent for animals. Exceptions: The following applies to lost property found in public offices or traffic facilities: • A finder's reward will only be paid out if the value exceeds 50 euros and the acquisition of ownership is excluded. The following applies to lost property in private business premises: • The claim to a finder's reward and also the acquisition of ownership are only possible if there is a waiver from the business owner.
