Teaser	When a foster child is admitted, one-time lump-sum allowances are approved and transferred with the first foster care payment.
Volltext	When a foster child is admitted, foster carers receive one-off and flat-rate allowances/benefits. 1. initial equipment of the apartment When a foster child is admitted, foster persons receive a one-time flat-rate allowance. The allowance covers: • the renovation and initial furnishing of a room for the foster child, • the initial provision of school supplies, • initial equipment with a bicycle, child seat, helmet, etc. The amount is paid with the first foster care allowance. A separate application is not required. When a child is admitted up to the age of one, an additional lump sum can be granted upon informal application (initial baby equipment). Needs exceeding these amounts are covered by the current care allowance. 2. initial equipment with clothing • When a foster child is admitted, a one-time, age-dependent lump sum is paid for initial clothing
