Volltext	The Youth Music School is intended to offer all children, young people and parents of music students in Bremerhaven an opportunity to actively engage with music within the framework of general educational tasks. It aims to awaken a love of music, promote an understanding of music and guide learning and music-making according to pedagogical and musical principles. The musical education acquired at an early age is intended to provide a meaningful occupation for later life. Our aim is to awaken the joy of making music and to help students develop their own technical, musical and stylistic performance standards. Our task is to provide a comprehensive, basic musical education, to train young people for amateur and amateur music-making, to support talented young people and to provide pre-professional specialist training. The youth music school with its office and 11 classrooms is located at Grazer Straße 61 in Bremerhaven. Lessons are also offered at a further 13 locations from Leherheide to Grünhöfe. This means that, as a rule, young pupils can be offered lessons at locations within a short distance of their homes. The lessons offered by the youth music school are based on 4 core areas: • Elementary music education (for infants from 9 months and children from 2 ½ - 6 years) with 5 different types of lessons tailored to age. • Instrumental/vocal lessons: 30 or 45-minute individual lessons for all solo and orchestral
