	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will be shown possible help in a personal meeting. The youth welfare office will try to support you so that your child can continue to stay with you. • If the youth welfare office deems it necessary to place your child in a home or other form of supervised accommodation, you can submit a corresponding application for educational assistance. • All parties involved (you, your child, the caregivers from the care facility and the youth welfare office) will meet for a help plan discussion. The help plan sets out how the help is to be organized and what goals are to be achieved. • The youth welfare office will look for a suitable facility. You can express your wishes. If there are several options, you can choose the facility. • Regular checks are carried out to determine whether the help is still suitable and whether your child can return to the family.
