Teaser	If you become aware of a criminal offense, regardless of whether you have been harmed yourself or have witnessed a crime, you can file a report with the police. In doing so, you inform the prosecuting authorities (police and public prosecutor's office) about the event and the course of events.
Volltext	You can file a criminal complaint regardless of whether you have been harmed, can testify to a criminal offense or are uninvolved. Fast processing is promoted by selecting the federal state in which the incident took place. You can make a report informally, by telephone, online and at the police station, either anonymously or by providing your contact details. The online report is an additional service. Reporting a criminal offense is the main focus. A distinction is made between different offense groups. Please note that offenses from the following offense groups can be reported online: Theft/property crime and damage to property. In order to facilitate the fastest possible processing, please select a suitable offense. If you file a report, you are a witness in the criminal proceedings. Regardless of your online report, it may be necessary to summon you to the relevant police station for further processing, for example in order to be able to interview you in person. It is also possible to attach photos, receipts or documents to the report as electronic attachments. This option should be used in particular to send evidence (proof of purchase, receipts or pictures of stolen items, damaged items or screenshots of screen content) to the police with the report. requirement to file a criminal complaint and the notice of discontinuation).

- It is possible to submit documents such as proof of purchase, receipts and/or images such as screenshots, images of damage or stolen items with the report.
- Once the report has been submitted and accepted, you will receive an e-mail with a case number and the contact details of the Bremen police.
- The relevant police department will accept the report and check it. If you report a crime that was committed outside Germany or in another federal state, the prosecuting authority will forward the report to the competent authority.
- Only if there are no grounds for investigation will the investigation be closed by the public prosecutor's office. The chances of success vary depending on the type of offense. Basically, the more information you provide, the better the chances of the police finding the perpetrator.
- Anyone who knowingly and falsely suspects a person is committing a criminal offense. The law provides for a fine or a prison sentence of up to five years.

Bearbeitungsdauer

After receipt of the online notification, you will receive an email confirmation with a process number. The processing time depends on various factors. It is not possible to set a time limit.

Frist

There is no deadline to comply with. However, you should observe the respective limitation periods, as criminal offenses usually expire after a certain period of time.
