Teaser	Do you receive benefits under the Asylum Seekers Benefits Act and your circumstances have changed? Find out more here.
Volltext	If you receive benefits under the Asylum Seekers' Benefits Act (AsylbLG) and your circumstances have changed, you must report the changes to the Bremerhaven Social Welfare Office. This is the case, for example, if • your income situation has changed • your family circumstances have changed. • if you have taken up gainful employment, this must be reported immediately, at the latest after 3 days of starting work • you have received a decision in the asylum procedure from the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. • you have received a residence permit. You do not have to report some changes. These are carried out ex officio: • Conversion to benefits in accordance with § 2 Asylum Seekers' Benefits Act (AsylbLG) analogous to SGB XII
