Teaser	If you as an employer wish to have employees work in your company or business on a Sunday or public holiday, you require a permit to do so.
Volltext	As an employer, you require a permit from the local authority responsible for occupational health and safety if you wish to work on a Sunday or public holiday. You can apply for a permit to work on Sundays or public holidays if you • wish to hold in-house and order fairs for commercial resellers, • want to prevent disproportionate damage to a business due to special circumstances, for example due to a very high sickness rate or a late delivery of materials, • want to carry out the legally required stocktaking if this cannot be done on a weekday. If there are other reasons, these will also be examined and work on Sundays or public holidays will be approved if necessary. Certain activities are exempt from the general ban on working on Sundays and public holidays, such as • Services of general interest: • for example, caring for the sick or looking after animals,

	• services: • for example in restaurants or with cab companies, and • leisure activities: • for example in theaters, soccer or leisure facilities, • Use in emergencies and exceptional cases: • For example, work that cannot be postponed, such as repairs to burst pipes or storm damage to roofs. Maximum limits apply for certain exceptions.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Application form • via the homepage of the trade supervisory authority or • informal letter to the senatorial authority (SGFV) • Statement from the works council (if available)
Voraussetzungen	• You can only apply for authorization to work on Sundays and public holidays if you are an employer.
Kosten	Current costs (variable): from € 129.50 up to € 5,500.00. The current cost rates apply as amended. The current cost ordinance can be found in the legal bases.
Verfahrensablauf	You can apply for authorization to work on Sundays and public holidays in writing. The following steps must be carried out: • Complete the relevant application form in full or submit an informal application. • You send it to the locally responsible office. Please note • For applications in accordance with §§ 13 Para. 4 and Para. 5, 15 Para. 2 Working Hours Act (ArbZG), please send your application to the Senator for Health, Women and Consumer Protection (the address is on file at the responsible office). • For applications in accordance with Section 13 (3) ArbZG, please send your application to the Trade Supervisory Authority of the State of Bremen (the address can be found at the responsible office). • If the documents or information required for
