Teaser	Would you like to take on legal guardianship in a professional capacity? Then you need to register for this.
Volltext	If you wish to work professionally as a caregiver, you must first register successfully. You must apply for registration at your local care authority. A registration procedure will check whether you are suitable for this activity. Your personal suitability and professional aptitude will be checked. If you are successfully registered, you can be nominated as a guardian by the guardianship authority and appointed by the guardianship courts. Provisional registration: Applicants who meet the requirements for registration may be provisionally registered by the competent parent authority if they can provide partial proof of the required expertise and are only unable to provide full proof of expertise because the necessary study, training or further training courses are not yet available. With provisional registration, applicants become professional supervisors. Provisional registration ends no later than June 30, 2025.
